Objectives - After Attending This Program You Should Be Able To

1. Examine key scientific discoveries in basic science in the field of sexual medicine, explore the underpinning organic factors of sexual function and dysfunction and their interplay with the psycho-social ones in women.
2. Apply principles of patient tailored management and assessment in the context of different cultural settings.
3. Share and explain the efficacy of pharmacological, hormonal, psychological, sex therapy, and physical therapy interventions as part of an integrated approach in female sexual medicine and women's health programs.

ISSWSH Grievance Policy

1. The person with a grievance will first try to informally resolve their grievance by contacting the ISSWSH Executive Office with the issue concerning the meeting, its delivery, the evaluation method, or technological issue.
2. If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the resolution through informal means, the aggrieved person shall put their grievance in writing to Dr. Parish. Dr. Parish will then consult with appropriate personnel at the organizations that have approved the course to find fair methods of resolving the grievance.
3. If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the solutions put forth, then they will be directed to put their grievance in writing and contact the appropriate organization, e.g. ISSWSH. Dr. Parish will abide by any decisions regarding resolution of the grievance.

*If earlier action steps fail to resolve the problem AASECT should be contacted at ce@aasect.org
